PRESS RELEASE

SPI MARINE LAUNCHES NEW GLOBAL WEBSITE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

[London, 25th October 2018]: SPI Marine is proud to announce the launch of its new interactive global website.

The new SPI Marine interactive website represents the expanding brand, which provides integrated maritime services to an international client base.

“Our new website represents our seven global offices and services in shipbroking, agency, logistics and data intelligence,” said Bonita Nightingale head of Intel & Comms at SPI Marine.

Key features include:

- Interactive clocks, showing which offices are open for business
- Interactive stats
- Integrated Shop – the SPI Marine shop is incorporated into the site, so all purchases can be made directly
- Instantly accessible reports are an activated feature on the site and will be launched in the new year.

CEO Jeff Mavelli said: “With a commitment to attract, develop and retain the best talents, SPI Marine brings together a dedicated team of bulk liquid shipping and logistics professionals, placing our global experience at the disposal of our customers - The new website reflects this.”
